Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Last Night At The Vista Cafe, Stories, Jim Steinberg returns to matters of the heart that readers will recognize as much like their own: the bonds and trials of lovers and friends, family members, even chance encounters between strangers. Carefully crafted and set in vividly described places, the stories explore the interiors of everyday people working through the common dilemmas that affect all of us. Jim describes each situation with careful attention to details of character and place. As in his first collection, Filling Up In Cumby And Other Stories, and in his debut novel, Boundaries, he aims to show his characters struggles with nuance, realism and the gentle touch of compassion. He shows their reasonable triumphs with scrupulous honesty. The reader is welcomed into richly detailed evocations of very personal situations. In the title story, a reclusive man tries to get through the closing night of his favorite restaurant and say goodbye to the salty waitress who has ministered to his wishes for seven years. She offers him help he is reluctant to receive. In Southern Comeuppance, a police sergeant gives his new lieutenant from up East a lesson in how to deal with a homeless man on a cold winter s day. In Bones, a long-divorced couple reaches an unexpected closure as they talk on the phone about burying the family cat. In Her Way, a somewhat imperious but gracious mother, on her deathbed but still sharp as a tack, struggles to show two generations of her large family, gathered around her, the right way to die. In Flat Tire, a college teacher stuck on the side of a mountain road is...
