Brand New Book  Print on Demand .On a Journey is a collection of verse describing a journey through human life. After he s born, his loving father proudly muses on his child s journey through life. Though he knows, he won t be there forever, he wants to make the most of the time they have. The boy grows up to be a fine young lad - engrossed in the mystical world of books and inspired by the surreal lands of fictional literature, he is caught between dreams and reality. When he grows out of his village and terror strikes their fields, his family has to immigrate to promising lands in hope. Though he enjoys his new life, the busy cities are inherently silent. He joins the army, but tired of servitude, his restless mind seeks avenues to enjoy life. Appreciating beauty that surrounds virgin lands, he becomes a wanderer and sets sail to discover himself. Years of wanderlust, and he grows tired of it! With some luck, he owns a wayside inn where he welcomes weary travelers. Business is slow and he longs for company. In one of these years, he gets married and has a baby girl - the joy of his life; but his wife soon leaves him. He brings up his daughter with love and affection. He s often amazed at his daughter s energy and wonders how someone can run without purpose. The years to follow, see a man who has weathered the storms of life. He muses on duality in human nature, the semblance of hourglass grains to traversing worlds after death, challenges stereotypes and inspires free thought, sympathizes with schizophrenics. He realizes that he is coming full...
