Gary, President, American Iron and Steel Institute At the last directors meeting of The Institute, before the summer vacation, a member suggested that, at the October meeting, I give some account of my proposed visit to the Orient and therefore he properly may be charged with the responsibility of the President s remarks on this occasion. I left New York on July 3rd for Toronto and from thence proceeded via the Canadian Pacific Railroad to Vancouver; sailed on the Empress of Asia July 13th; arrived at Yokohama July 24th (dropping one day at the 180th meridian and picking it up again on the return trip), and from there went on same steamer to Manila, arriving July 31st. I left Manila on another ship (Japanese) August 7th for Hong Kong, overtaking the Empress of Asia, which had preceded the Japanese ship, and sailed for Shanghai. From there I went through portions of China (visiting Peking, Soochow, Nanking and various other places in the eastern and northern part) to Mukden, in Manchuria; Seoul,...
