In politics Mr. McGeeney was a democrat and one of the active workers in party ranks. Fraternally he was connected with the Eagles and he was a charter member of Holy Family Court No. 1 of the Catholic Order of Foresters and was identified with several other organizations. Mr. McGeeney was widely known, enjoying the friendship and kindly regard of many with whom he was brought in contact. He was very successful in business, as is shown in the fact that in the course of his active career he was able to accumulate enough to erect the building on Madison street which his widow still owns and which brings to her a very gratifying rental. RICHARD CONOVER LAKE. Richard Conover Lake, whom the easily discernible steps in an orderly progression have brought to a prominent and enviable position in financial circles in Chicago, is...
