Why should anyone read this Because the end effect is restorative and invigorating and because everyone whos ever had a father like this wants to believe there is a happy way out. The author was born in the bottom of the Depression. His early life was normal for the times. By the time he graduated from high school, hed won the schools golf championship twice, earned many varsity letters in four sports, and had learned to box. But hed also been touched by death five times --- his mother when he was 16, her brother in the war, and his maternal and paternal grandparents. After high school, hed gone far away to college, earning As when he had been a C student in high school. During his first year away, his father had remarried, and he hadnt been invited. His father adopted the two children that his new wife brought to the marriage; she adopted two of his three. In college he majored in English, planning to teach high school, and, like the two summers before, had worked...
